

Ekukhanyeni. Nov. 14, 1892.

To Dinuzulu at St. Helena. Ndabezitha !

Mjwapuna kaMalungwana wants to know about why you are scared if we ask from your family? Did you quarrell with your family? Why are you scared because they send the money to the government? I say (Mjwapuna) worry not because money comes from the governemnt. Yes, Ndabezitha, I am amswering your question about the dead rebels. It is difficult to associate the names with the dead rebels. The people I can only remember are Tshubane, Mnyamana, Madabula & Majiya. I can't tell about who the others are because they don't wan^t us to know about them. Mnyamana was reported to okaJojo and we don't know about what killed him. We received your letter about your grandfather Mnyamana and it has also beensent to Tshánibezwe.

Matshana kaMondisi gave three bundles of blankets to the wives of the King. They are one hundred blankets and each blanket goes with a rug for each woman. But they did not accept them because Mnyamana is Zibebu's in-law.

Ndabezitha Muhlolo is still sick. He first had a diarrhoea but now is a backache. The chances of recovery are very slim because his illness complicates in such a way that the herbalist's treatment becomes unsuccessful. He is so sick that he sometimes vomits a gall.

Nkentshana kaSitambu is also sick with stomachache and claims that it is his long-term sickness. We also lose hope about his recovery. Zililo wants to know whether Radebe received the some of money sent to him. (£8.00).

Greetings from Mjwapuna, Zililo, Matshekela and Muthenjwa.

Mbobjane is still imprisoned in Durban and Magedhle, Mafukwini and Hlazo imprisoned at Eshowe. Dandede kaNoju died in jail. He was imprisoned together with Hlazo, and Zixibilili kaSomukel at Eshowe. Nsukuzonke kaHlokolo has been released from jail. Some of the headmen fine with the cattle from their daughters' lobola.

Magema Magwaza.

These were the last reports of the year 1892 by Magema Magwaza.